

	Place of work Romania		Type of employment Full time
	Start ASAP		Job title MECHANICAL TECHNICAL ADVISOR

Job responsibilities:

- Will have the role of Expert on Mechanical Installation & Civil Works
- Provides detailed Non-Conformity Reporting on all Mechanical and Civil site works
- Advises management for best practices to correct NCR
- Understands basic HSE requirements (TESLA & Local codes)
- Conducts PPE site inspections
- Supervises and executes mechanical and electrical activities

Employee benefits

- Home office is accepted and will be applied as follows: Industry standard 21 days at site or office / 7days home office guidelines apply in the situations where the full presence on job site or in the office is not a must.
- Work on interesting and new projects in the field of energy (renewable sources, hydrogen technologies, battery systems, ...)
- Individual approach
- Possibility to work on projects within the whole group in the EU (Netherlands, Romania, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Poland, ...)
- Possibility of career growth - a dynamically growing company where it is possible to find employment depending on your own ambitions
- Notebook and mobile

Employee requirements

Education:

- Civil Engineering Degree, minimum 5 years experience
- Project experience in construction including would represent a plus
- Experience in renewable energy business would represent a plus
- Ability to interpret/mark-up technical drawings;
- Experienced with EU standard construction management (emphasis on health and safety)
- Fluent in English
- Enthusiastic attitude and ability to work both independently and as part of a team.

